

MY BIO DATA

Dr. Florence Kanorio Kisirkoi is a senior lecturer in Maasai Mara University and the coordinator of Teaching Practice. She holds a Ph.D degree in curriculum studies from Kenyatta University, a master of education degree in curriculum studies also from Kenyatta University and Bachelor of Education degree specialized in English Language and Literature from University of Nairobi. Dr. Florence Kisirkoi has a long experience of 12 years developing Kenya national curriculum for all levels of school education while working with the Kenya national curriculum development centre, the Kenya Institute of Curriculum Development. She rose to the level of Deputy Director and worked also as an education researcher. Florence also taught English Language and Literature in secondary schools in Kenya for 12 years. She has authored many books, book chapters and articles in refereed journals in teacher education.

Florence Kisirkoi

